ALBERTO RAMOS

PERSONAL PROFILE

My main goal is to evolve both professionally and personally. I consider myself an ambitious hardworking person that gives his best to solve any adversity that may arise.

I constantly seek to acquire new knowledge on areas of my interest, so I can improve my skills and fulfill my quest for professional success.

During my free time I love to travel, take photos and climb. Photography has always been a passion of mine so it is pretty common to see me along side a camera. Apart from photography, climbing is my other passion. I started this hobby a bit over 2 years ago and, since then, I do my best to climb twice or thrice a week.
